MOTTO

"I am come that they may have life and have it more abundantly."

THE PURPOSE OF Y. W. C. A. ON THE CAMPUS

Every girl who enters F. S. T. C. becomes a member of the campus organization of the national Young Women's Christian Association. Here, as on other campuses, Y. W. meets a need felt by the students for a connection with God. You will experience a goodwill and fellowship toward your new friends grown out of common problems, sorrows, and joys.

The purpose of Y. W. may be stated to be: "To build a fellowship of young women devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians."

BLUE RIDGE

In the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains there is a summer camp where Y. W. C. A. girls go in the summer for conferences. Every June, representatives from all the southern colleges gather there for ten days for the purpose of discussing and solving school and student problems.

The camp is a delightful place surrounded by beautiful scenery. It is a place where all are lifted in mind and spirit close to the spirit of God. His presence pervades all there, and we see more clearly than ever how He can be felt in all our work and play.

No more apt description may be given of the place than is given in the following lines written by Harriet Monroe:

Still and calm
In purple robes of kings,
The low-lying mountains sleep at the edge of the world.
The forests cover them like mantles,
Day and night
Rise and fall over them like the wash of waves.

Asleep, they reign—
Silent, they say all.
Hush me, O slumbering mountains
And send me dreams.

THE WORK OF THE Y. W. C. A. COMMITTEES

1—Devotionals

Each Sunday evening around quarter of seven, you may see a steady stream of girls going in the direction of Monroe Hall. They are going to Devotionals, a quiet half hour of music, scripture and inspiration. Usually we have a town speaker to bring the message, sometimes one of our faculty, and sometimes it is just between ourselves. There is scripture, a prayer, a message, and finally all go out quietly feeling much calmer of mind, more sure of the world, and more strong to its temptations.

Be sure to come to our little services that mean so much to us on the Hill, and it may be that there will be some one thing we would like to have you do to make the service a little nicer.

Phyllis Hersch (chairman).

2—Campus Social Service

The function of this committee may be felt by someone sometime when she least expects it. It may be that she is in the infirmary and through the members of this committee she will receive her mail from the post office, have flowers in her room that might not otherwise be there, and read magazines that have been helpfully contributed by Campus Social Service. Yet again, she may enjoy reading the Y. W. bulletin board in the post office, where bits of poetry and philosophy are posted that "they that run may read." If you have any favorite selections won't you put them in the envelope or little box that is affixed to the back of the board to receive contributions.

The motto of the committee is "A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance" and the fulfillment of that motto is the hope of each member.

Constance Compton (chairman).

3—Finance Committee

Aside from collecting and handling money, the committee affiliates our Student Association with the World Association by contributing funds for international Christian movements.

Fresh candy or varied kinds and flavors may be found on sale practically at all times in each of the dormitories, through the work of the committee. College stickers and seals also may be bought by those who seek adornment for luggage or correspondence. Each year an attractive benefit is given for the purpose of securing more money for use in the organization.

Frances Curtis Smith (chairman).

4—Property Committee

An important factor of any program, however small, is the arrangement and decoration of the stage. The Property Committee has charge of this and is responsible for the effective lighting and artistic arrangement of the green things that make the stage at once attractive and fitting.

Peg Lamb (chairman).

5—Music Committee

Especially fitting is the motto of this committee, "I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise in Thy name, O thou most High." Music for all services conducted by the Y. W. through the year is furnished by this committee, through selection of musicians from the city, through the Y. W. Vested Choir made up of eight selected voices from the student body, or through the directing of congregational singing. At Vespers or at Devotionals you will especially appreciate the working of this committee.

Fay Luther and Edna Daniel (chairmen).

6—Town Girl Committee

During your first days here you will have the pleasant experience of being conducted by the Town Girls Committee through Fredericksburg to visit all the historic spots and points of interest. Through the year the committee functions in other directions, but none the less effectively.

The primary aim of the committee is to serve as a connecting link between the day students and the girls that live on the Hill.

Peggy Smith (chairman).

7—Vespers

Every evening except Saturday and Sunday, a group of earnest young people gather in the Tea Room to be present at the Vesper service. The program, planned and executed by members of the committee, lasts fifteen minutes, and includes a prayer, a song, a thought. Get the habit of attending each evening right after dinner, and you will find the service both resting and refreshing after a day of hurry, worry and work.

Jack Clark (chairman).

8—Publicity

The many posters you see here and there, serving to tell you this or that bit of current information regarding the many activities of Y. W., are products of this committee.

On the bulletin board in Monroe Hall, and on the one in the post office, you see evidences of the members' handiwork. On little four-legged stands also, on the way from Seacobeck to Frances Willard and the other dormitories, you may see posted the concise, readable messages. The other committees depend on the publicity committee for the advertisement of the various activities of the organization. It cooperates with all the other committees in spreading the news on and off the campus.

Frances Sherman (chairman).

9—Church Relations

Your college life must have a religious side as well as an intellectual one. Upon your arrival in the city, it is most advisable that you select the church of your choice and try to attend regularly. Innumerable advantages will come of it, as you will then feel that you really have a church home in this strange city, where you may go and worship and feel at home. In your own Sunday School class you will meet lasting friends and enjoy the fellowship of people of your faith.

The Young People's Societies of the city extend a cordial welcome to each new girl, with the hope that she will attend the one in the church of her preference.

The committee works to do what it can to bring the churches of the city and the students on the Hill into a working Christian fellowship.

Fleet Carney (chairman).

10—Social Committee

The aim of the committee is to promote a spirit of friendliness and congeniality among the student body and faculty through various social functions to be held throughout the year. Formal and informal teas and parties are held for the students where they may meet and get acquainted with each other, when their paths might not otherwise have met.

The committee strives to direct the student body in the creative use of part of its leisure time. It desires to make the college life of every student wholly and wholesomely enjoyable and pleasant.

Ruby Lee Norris (chairman).

11—World Fellowship

The committee seeks to help in the bringing about of a broader and more international view of human nature, and to inculcate in the youth of today a greater tolerance for the people of other lands and races. Discussions and interpretations of the attitudes, customs and beliefs of people from other parts of the earth are carried on from time to time to serve as a stimulus for student interest in problems of world fellowship.

The World Fellowship committee leads in the observance of the World Week of Prayer which comes in November.

Flora Ryan (chairman).

FRESHMAN COMMISSION

The Freshman Commission of the college is a connecting link between the Y. W. C. A. and the Freshman Class. This Commission shall be composed of ten girls selected from the ten discussion groups formed at the beginning of the year, and shall organize in the same manner as the big Y. W. Cabinet. The president of the Freshman Class, who is elected sometime after October 15, shall act as an ex-officio member of the Commission and in turn the president of the Commission shall be a member of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet.

The advisor of the Commission must be a junior or senior who has had experience in Y. W. work on the hill. She is elected at the end of the year to serve in the coming session as one of the major members of the Y. W. Cabinet. Her duty does not stop with the Commission, but she shall act as a leader and guide of the Freshmen throughout the year and instruct them for future Y. W. leadership.

Y. W. C. A. ACTIVITIES

The Doll Show

The Doll Show has become a most singular tradition of our college. This show always takes place just before the Christmas vacation. The Freshmen, who each year prepare it, are divided into groups with an upper-classman as director. Each of these groups produces an individual scene, complete within itself, as a part of the display.

In past years considerable interest has been shown in this activity, and some quite original ideas have found expression in the carrying out of clever scenes. After the public has been admitted to the show, and the scenes have been judged for first, second and third places, they are taken apart. The dolls are distributed among poor children of the city who take a keen delight in them.

White Gift Service

A very impressive candle light service is held at Thanksgiving at which time the students bring white gifts to be distributed among poor families in the community.

Christmas Stockings

When the calendar indicates that Christmas is at last drawing near, the students begin to look around in the down-town stores for woolly stockings that will keep some poor child's legs warm through wintry weather. These they buy and stuff with all kinds of good things to eat, small play things, and story books.

Y. W. collects these filled stockings and distributes them among children in needy families in and around Fredericksburg.

Big and Little Sisters

The Big and Little Sister Plan is sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. and explains why you received a letter from some "nice stranger" who informed you she was your "big sister". Although you had not hitherto been cognizant of the relationship, you were assured such an one existed and were urged to write "real soon" to such and such an address.

Each upperclassman desiring a little sister during the summer is given the name of an incoming Freshman in order that she may establish a friendship with her and help her in her preparations by answering any questions about college that may arise. There is always a great eagerness on registration day to hunt out one's "sister" and "see what she's like".

All during the first few months the big sister helps her little sister to become adjusted, and acts as her advisor all through the year.

Peanut Week

Peanut week is one that is anticipated by everyone for many days before. A week before the Christmas holidays, peanut shells tied with ribbon are distributed in the dining hall. Within the shell is to be found the name of some student or faculty member to whom one is to secretly "play peanut".

The object of the "game" is for everyone to see how nice she can be to her "peanut" without the latter finding out just who is the thoughtful person. Everything imaginable can be done for "Peanut" from sending notes to sending candy or a bit from "a box from home".

The culmination of the fun comes on the night of the Peanut Party when each person learns who her unknown benefactor is. Friends won in the game often become lasting ones.

HAMLET'S "Y. W." RETREAT

Y. W. Retreat

Not far away, yet seemingly miles from the bustle of the city, is situated a cabin that Y. W. girls thrill to speak of. This cabin, the property of Mr. Hamlet, is the retreat where, each year, the old and new Y. W. Cabinets go to spend a pleasant, restful week-end.

The object of the retreat is to give the girls an opportunity to know each other better as co-workers and to perfect plans for the coming year. Quiet and beauty of nature there become close to the hearts of the girls, but hikes, swimming, and marshmallow roasts do not seem to go far amiss.

Vested Choir

Sunday night devotionals are made the more lovely by the presence of the vested choir which leads the group singing as well as furnishing special music.

The eight girls who compose the choir are selected at the first of the year by the Music Chairman with the aid of Miss Eppes, head of the music department.

Y. W. C. A. Teas

The Y. W. teas are delightful affairs which occur on Sunday afternoons throughout the year. Each student is invited to one at sometime during the term.

There in the College Tea Room, the girls get together in informal little groups and chat comfortably over their tea cups.

Y. W. NOTES

"Y. W. Notes" is a publication of the Freshman Commission. It was started in the fall of 1933 and has been growing steadily in popularity. News of the work of the Freshman Commission and the Y. W. Cabinet is given along with a few selected poems. The leaflet is published weekly and distributed in the dining room to all students.

SUNRISE SERVICES

Easter sunrise services are held on the viaduct leading to Seacobeck Hall at 7:15 each morning of the week before the Easter vacation. The programs are very simple and do not last long, but are nevertheless very worthwhile. A member of the Y. W. Cabinet takes charge of the exercises.

THE NATIONAL Y. W. HYMN

Follow The Gleam

To the knights in the days of old,
Keeping watch on the mountain
heights,
Came a vision of Holy Grail
And a voice through the waiting night,
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Banners unfurled o'er all the world
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Of the Chalice that is the Grail.

And we who would serve the King
And loyally Him obey,
In the consecrate silence know
That the challenge still holds today.
Follow, follow, follow the gleam.
Standards of worth o'er all the earth.
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Of the light that shall bring the dawn.

BENEDICTION

"And now may the Lord watch between me and thee while we are absent one from the other."

HONOR SYSTEM

Fredericksburg State Teachers College offers to its girls the opportunity for self-reliance and personal responsibility. This is made possible through Student Government, which gives to each girl a share in student conduct, attitude, and loyalty.

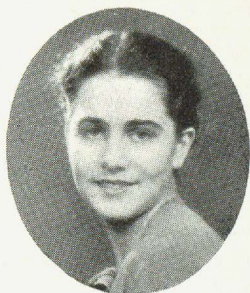

No honor system can be a success without the co-operation of everyone in the student body. Each student is on her honor in regard to others as well as herself.

A new experience awaits the girl at F. S. T. C. who has never been on her own before. She does the right thing because she knows it is the thing to do. The Honor System is a challenge to a girl to be a gentlewoman, and in being one she will uphold the Honor System.

HONOR CODE

I, as a student and citizen of the Fredericksburg State Teachers College, do hereby resolve to uphold the honor of this college by refraining from giving or receiving of academic material in a manner not authorized by the instructor, from the illegal appropriation of the property of others, and from the deliberate and unjustified falsification of facts. I shall do all that is in my power at all times to create a spirit of honesty and honor for its own sake.

The only exception to this rule is when she is visiting in the home of her parents or guardian.

POINT SYSTEM

1. Offices held by students shall be valued by percentage.

2. Any student who is nominated for a major office in any of the classes or major activities in the College and allows her name to stand as a nominee is ineligible for any other nomination to any other office until the election for this office is over.

If a student does not wish her nomination to hold she may withdraw her name as a nominee, providing she makes her withdrawal by submitting a written request to the secretary of the class or organization not later than six hours after her nomination from the floor and previous to its posting. The list will not be presented for approval until this time has expired.

In case the six hours expires after 11 P. M., the hour for withdrawal will close at 8 A. M. the following morning.

3. A student making an average below C, or failing on more than 20 per cent of her work in the previous quarter shall be ineligible for participation in any major school activity and for holding any office during the quarter succeeding. A major activity shall be defined as one pertaining to the whole student body, such as Student Government, Y. W. C. A., the Battlefield, the Bullet, the Bayonet, and May Queen; in addition, departmental work, such as choral club, physical education and dramatic activities shall also be regarded as major school activities, or any other activity which will require so much preliminary practice as to transgress on proper academic preparation. A student may not remove an ineligibility by merely making up a condition, unless such conditions be due to illness or enforced absence from the College.

4. The academic status of every student holding office or taking part in a major school activity shall be ascertained from the Registrar's Office by the secretary of the organization and approved by the advisor of that organization before the nominee's name shall be submitted for consideration.

(a) As soon as the officers in an organization are elected, it shall be the duty of the secretary of the organization to furnish the properly attested list of all officers in the organization to the Registrar's office and notify the office of any change that may occur during the year.

5. No student shall be permitted to carry an excess of sixteen class credits and hold office to the amount of 100 points except as noted in the catalog on page 36 (middle of page).

THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Athletic Association at the Fredericksburg State Teachers College is a member of the national organization, Women's Athletic Association. The activities of the Athletic Association are numerous and interesting. Hikes, breakfast rides on horseback, campfire parties and suppers at the cabin, swimming meets, creative dancing, and sports of all kinds are only a few of the events sponsored by the organization.

To become a member of this organization it is necessary to earn seventy-five points toward your school letter. The points are figured according to a schedule which you may find under the title "Point System." Each sport that you take part in will give you a certain number of points. After you have become eligible, follows the fun of being initiated at a party at the cabin. Club meetings take place regularly, and continued membership depends on regular attendance, as a written excuse is required by the president in event of absence.

Every girl is urged to take part in the campus sports and enjoy the "ping" of the ball on her racket, the dash of cool blue water, the rhythmic beat of the tomtoms, and the charm of the open road.

CLASS TEAMS

With interclass and varsity hockey games, the athletic season begins in the fall. These games are followed by interclass and varsity basketball in the winter quarter, and, in the spring, by interclass baseball. All girls are eligible for tryouts and are urged to keep watch of the Athletic Association bulletin board for the notice to report to coach.

FRESHMAN PLAY DAY

Not many days after you arrive, the Athletic Association will entertain you at an event called each year "Play Day."

Contests, sports, exhibitions, and games will be planned for your entertainment. There you will, for the first time perhaps, become acquainted with the activities and functions of the Athletic Association.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION CABIN

THE A. A. CABIN

Upon the crest of a hill, which would enable it to overlook the campus if it were not for its surrounding woodland, stands the A. A. cabin. The building was built a few years ago by the Association, and many are the frolics that carefree members have had there. However, the cabin opens its door not only to A. A. members, but to various organizations on the Hill that from time to time plan overnight weinie-roasts and parties of like nature.

The cabin can boast modern sanitary equipment, lighting, and running water. On the end of the one large room, may be found a large cozy fireplace, the cots being in the other end of the room.

You will treasure as some of your happiest hours the nights you will have spent in the cabin. There the wind howls on autumn nights, and the leaping flames make dancing shadows on the ceiling, as an eerie ghost story progresses.

SPORTS FACILITIES

Ample facilities are provided on the campus for participation in the many sports. In the student activities building there is a large indoor swimming pool, well equipped with shower rooms and first aid supplies. A new outdoor swimming pool on the northern end of the campus is now nearing completion, and is expected to be ready for use very soon.

A golf course and three athletic fields are accessible to the student on the campus. Tennis courts, gymnasium, available saddle horses, all offer hours of pleasant sport and enjoyment to the student who takes pleasure in being in the out-of-doors.

DEVIL—GOAT

And the devil shall be your emblem. Now this is truly no insult, but something that you shall grow to be proud of—so proud, in fact, that you will buy a little red piece of flanel in the shape of a devil and wear it on your sweater to show the world that you belong to that clan of odd years, the Devils.

The campus seems pervaded with goats and devils. You will see the flag of each sometime, lashed to the pillars of Monroe Hall. The explanation of the whole "devilish" idea is this: students who enter college in an odd year, and therefore graduate in an odd year, are called Devils; students who enter in an even year are termed Goats. Each year the rivalry between the two clans is great, each side vying for points in each of the many contests sponsored during the school term. At the end of the year, when each class moves up a step, a loving cup is awarded the side that has won during that year.

"Devils last year won the cup—
Try to keep the good work up!"

SONGS AND YELLS

---

PEPPER SONG

(Tune: "It Ain't Gonna Rain No More")

Oh, the finest college I ever knew,
It never comes a-pokin';
If I should tell you the pep it had,
You'd think I was a-jokin'.

It's not the pep o' the pepper pot,
Nor the pep of the popcorn popper;
It's not the pep of the mustard can,
Nor the pep of the vinegar stopper;

It's the good old-fashioned P-E-P—
The pep you cannot down.
Fredericksburg pep!
Fredericksburg pep!
Peppiest college around!

We're the girls of Fredericksburg
You hear so much about;
The people turn and stare at us
Whenever we go out.

We're noted for our wisdom
And the clever things we do.
Most everybody likes us—
We hope you like us, too.

As we go marching
And the band begins to p-l-a-y.
You can hear the people shouting—
The girls of Fredericksburg are on their way!

DEVIL SONG

(Tune: Field Artillery March)

Play the game! Play the game!
Pep and spirit are our aim
As the Devils go marching along.
Let's have fun! The fight's begun!
Kill those goats off one by one,
While the Devils are marching along.

Chorus:

So we'll fight, fight, fight
For the Devils tonight;
Look out, you Goats, we're coming on,
And where'er we go,
We want the world to know
That the Devils are fighting along,
Keep on fighting!
That the Devils are fighting along.

GOAT SONG

(Tune: "Baby Face")

Billy Goat, we've got the cutest little
Billy Goat,
He's got the cutest little hairy coat,
Billy Goat;
We've got those odds a-jumping,
We've surely started something.
Billy Goat, we're up in heaven when
we see our flag afloat,
Oh we have naught to fear,
Our Billy Goat is here,
Our pretty Billy Goat!

HAIL! BILLY GOATS, HAIL!

(Tune: "The Old Gray Mare")

Um tra la, we sure have got the pep!
We've got plenty pep!
We can do the high step,
Um tra la, we sure have got the pep!
Hail! Billy Goats, Hail!

Hail! Billy Goats, Hail!
Hail! Billy Goats, Hail!
Um tra la, we sure have got the pep!
Hail! Billy Goats, Hail!

CABIN SONG

(To the tune of "Just a Little Street Where Old Friends Meet")

It's just a little spot upon a hill
Where we'll wander back and forth
some day;
A log cabin there, fireplace and old log chair,
All it needs is us and all our teachers there.
And there we'll play and sing, and cook
and eat,
And have a happy time while there.
It's just a little home where we may roam
To free us from our woes and cares.

BROWN AND GOLD

(Tune: "Joan of Arc")

Brown and Gold! Brown and Gold!
We have worked, never shirked for the game.
We have sent our girls out to win.
They'll fight for us through thick and thin.
Brown and Gold! Brown and Gold!
To you we will be true:
We've fought the fight to victory,
Brown and Gold, we are strong for you!

THE BULLET

The Bullet is the bi-weekly publication issued by the students of the College. Upon arrival on the campus you will be given the first issue of the paper and asked to subscribe as soon as possible. The subscription price is very reasonable, and great things are to be expected of the Freshmen, both in the way of 100% subscription, and in the way of journalistic contributions from time to time.

This year the Bullet plans to add a Roto-Gravure section to several editions. A comic magazine affiliated with the paper will be available also. This magazine is planned to come out eight times during the school year, but without your backing and cooperation the plans for the paper cannot be realized. Be sure to lend your support.

THE G. K. T. CLUB

The G. K. T. Club represents a group of enthusiastic home economic majors and minors. It was named for Miss Grace K. Tanner, a former professor in foods.

Parties, teas, hikes, and other social activities have proven to be beneficial not only for entertainment, but also to educate the girls in the manner in which these functions are carried out.

The G. K. T.'s are looking forward to the new session which will bring new members to the club with new ideas and new interests.

COLLEGE COMMERCIAL CLUB

The College Commercial Club is one of the outstanding organizations on the hill. Its membership is made up of students majoring or minoring in Commercial work. This club meets once every month and has as its chief objective the socializing of the students in the Commercial Department. During the year trips are made to Washington and Richmond to visit the leading business concerns in order to give students direct contact with the business world.

Each year a benefit is given, usually in the form of a fashion show, in order to contribute something to the interest of the school.

The Commercial Club cordially invites all Commercial Freshmen to join the Club as soon as they have the required number of credits in the Commercial field. After Christmas Freshmen who are taking a regular schedule will be eligible.

A Greek letter society, Pi Omega Pi, is expected to be organized this year. Requirements for membership in this organization will be high, as it is to be an honorary society.

THE BATTLEFIELD

The Battlefield, the college annual, represents in its two hundred and fifty pages a year of college life. In it can be found a record of the classes, the organizations, and the athletics of a year at work and at play.

The Battlefield, as our yearbook, is essentially a college product, written about the students, by the students and for the students.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club is an outstanding organization on the Hill which vitally affects college life. Each year at least one outstanding play is given by this club. Last year it produced the great success, "Little Women."

This club believes educational dramatics to be both pleasurable and profitable. Historic ability may be developed or worked in the various phases of stagecraft in the open, if one is averse to performing publicly. Entrance requirements are based upon previous experience, work in the class of play production and approval by the director. At some time during the year each member has an opportunity to take part in a production. This club is interested in attaining high standards in its frequent performances.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA—NATIONAL HONORARY SCHOLASTIC FRATERNITY

The purpose of Alpha Phi Sigma is to encourage high scholastic attainment both in high school and in college. High school valedictorians and salutatorians are automatically eligible for membership upon admission to the college. Any other student who has been in the college six months and whose scholarship ranks in the upper sixth is eligible.

Alpha Phi Sigma attempts to instill within each member a love for learning by association with others who have won high scholastic honors and who shall strive continually to maintain them. Alpha Phi Sigma strives to uphold a high standard of morals and ethics within the organization and to promote such ideals in the student body as a whole.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club is an organization of about thirty members selected by the Musical Director. Entrance into the club is based upon voice quality, range and singing ability. Weekly rehearsals are held for the purpose of studying two-and-three-part selections of standard and classical music.

If you have any musical ability, don't fail to try out for the Glee Club.

HINTS TO FRESHMEN

1. The bedding at the college includes sheets, pillow case, spread, and one blanket for the milder weather. Another blanket will be given you as the weather gets colder, but if you are inclined to be cold-natured, you may find good use for an additional blanket or cozy quilt.
2. Your trunk probably will not arrive for two or three days after you do, so it would be wise to include in your hand luggage the following articles: a cool wash dress, a pair of flat-heeled walking shoes, ankle socks, wash cloth, towel, and soap, your make-up kit, and some adhesive plaster for blistered heels (most everyone gets them the first few days, but your risk will be less if you wear comfortable walking shoes).
3. A fountain pen comes in handy making out registration cards.
4. Don't plan too much on fixtures and color schemes for your room until you get a chance to talk it over with your room-mate. Since the windows are a little longer than average, it would be advisable to get your curtains after you get to school.

5. Share your college joys and experiences with your parents by writing home at least once a week.
6. "All folks are queer but thee and me, and sometimes I think thou art a little queer—" thus quoth the Quaker to his wife. Give your room-mate at least a ten day trial.
7. Be sure to bring with you your Bible; you will find it an ever present help and comfort.
8. Remember that you aren't the only stranger—there are at least three hundred others. Go out and make friends.
9. "Hey" is our salutation on the campus; return it with a smile.
10. In your dormitory there is a place for electrical equipment such as curling irons, toasters, waffle irons, hot plates, etc.
11. If you have the habit of borrowing, lend it before coming.
12. A Freshman respects upper classmen—and never forgets that she is a Freshman!
